IUSLAKE ADVISES MEMBERS OF THE HAMBERGER FAMILY ON THE ACQUISITION OF THE ACOUSTIC ELEMENTS BUSINESS UNIT FROM HAMBERGER INDUSTRIEWERKE GMBH

Iuslake advised the investment vehicle of members of the Hamberger family on the acquisition of all shares in akustikplus GmbH & Co. KG as well as all shares in its general partner, Akustikplus Verwaltungs GmbH. The seller was Hamberger Industrierwerke GmbH, whose company name ultimately traces back to the Hamberger family name.

Hamberger Industrierwerke GmbH is undergoing a comprehensive restructuring process. As part of this, it had already sold its flooring business, known under the „Haro“ brand, to Mutares in April 2026. As a further step in this restructuring process, Hamberger Industrierwerke GmbH is now selling its acoustic elements business unit. This comprises acoustic panels and acoustic elements that serve to improve room acoustics.

Iuslake was brought onto the mandate through relationships with the former managing director of Hamberger Industrierwerke GmbH, Dr. Peter Hamberger. Iuslake had already advised Hamberger Industrierwerke GmbH in connection with its successful refinancing in 2023.

Iuslake's advice covered M&A as well as restructuring law aspects. Tax aspects were advised on behalf of the buyer by Hannes Hubert and Dr. Markus Schwabe of Z/V/D/G Wirtschaftsprüfer Steuerberater PartmbB.

Hamberger Industrierwerke GmbH was advised on this transaction by Nikolaus Malottke and Dr. Michael Fischer, both Deloitte Legal, as well as by Michael Kürmayer, Christian Linseisen, and Florian Eckhard, all E&Y Tax.
